

Richard & Deborah Popovich

This dynamic duo has been earning a living entertaining Western Canadian audiences with their unique brand of humor and music for over 30 years. Richard and Deborah are well known for their performances on the famous Alberta Prairie Tourist Train at Stettler, Alberta and have entertained people from all over the world during their many performances there. In addition to their work on the tourist train, Richard and Deborah owned and operated Popovich Patio Dinner Theatre at Red Deer for almost 10 years and enjoyed sold out crowds 90% of the time.

Richard & Deborah's dinner theatre style, music and comedy shows take them everywhere from rural community centers to city concert halls. If you've ever been to a show in Branson, Missouri, you'll know what to expect. One of Richard and Deborah's many show highlights is Richard's ability to remember and use the names of 30 – 40 people present in the audience during the show.

Richard and Deborah cleverly combine comedy with classic songs, sure to please a wide range of ages and musical tastes and suitable for any occasion. All things considered, Richard and Deborah entertain approximately 150 days a year throughout Western Canada.
